FALL IN NEW ENGLAND

There's nothing quite like the fall season in New England. It's full of fun seasonal activities and traditions. Here are a couple suggestions on how to celebrate fall like a local!

GO APPLE PICKING AND DRINK APPLE CIDER

Apple orchards are a great place to enjoy the fall. You can pick your own apples, drink hot or cold apple cider, and eat apple cider doughnuts. Yum! Bishop's Orchards or Lyman Orchards are two great options.

GET LOST IN A CORN MAZE

Many local farms or orchards feature a corn maze in the fall season. It's a fun activity to try to escape the tall corn stalks.

PICK A PUMPKIN AND MAKE A JACK-O-LANTERN

Pumpkin patches are around every corner. Local farms, such as the Belinsky Family Farm, allow you to pick your own pumpkins. If you want to be a real local, you can carve a face or design in the pumpkin and put a candle inside to create a "Jack-o-Lantern".

GO HIKING TO ENJOY THE FALL FOLIAGE

The leaves are already starting to change and will continue to turn to vibrant shades of yellow, orange, and red. One of the best hiking spots in New Haven is East Rock Park, as its collection of trees make it a great place to view the foliage. Another good hiking spot is Sleeping Giant State Park, a popular historical destination in Hamden.

GET SPOOKED AT A HAUNTED HOUSE

Halloween is approaching, and one of the best ways to get into the spirit is by visiting a haunted house. If you are looking for a good scare, there are a few haunted houses to visit in New Haven. One popular destination is the Trail of Terror, which opens in late September.

ENJOY PUMPKIN-SPICE ANYTHING!

There is a craze for pumpkin flavored foods and drinks in the fall- from Starbucks lattes, beers, and treats. You will see pumpkin flavor everywhere!

BE SURE TO SHARE YOUR PICTURES OF YOUR FALL FUN WITH THE ISO BY EMAIL OR TAG US!
